

12 days of Christmas – Nick's story

I have had 7 satisfying years volunteering as a Gateway Assessor and been able to help a wide range of people. The Citizens Advice team are very supportive and knowledgeable, providing terrific backup for volunteers so that you are always confident about handling issues, and have really focused information to share with those coming for assistance.

