

12 days of Christmas – Kath's story

I started to volunteer with Citizens Advice in March 2011 doing mainly administration work helping a specialist debt adviser. After six months, I was successful in applying for a part-time paid position supporting other specialist advisers with their administration work and haven't looked back since.

I am currently the senior administrator here at Arun & Chichester Citizens Advice and really enjoy the work supporting management in running our three centres.

