

12 days of Christmas – Richard's story

Volunteering as a Gateway Assessor for Citizens Advice connects me to my local community. I enjoy being able to help people, learn about their problems and understand how to address them. I'm happy to be part of an organisation that attracts colleagues with similar aims.

